<sup>1</sup> In a telephone conference requested by the parties and conducted on January 11, 2005, counsel represented that they were working towards agreement on a joint motion for summary decision [47 C.F.R. § 251] which, if granted, would substantially shorten the time and costs in concluding this proceeding. The Presiding Judge decided, under the circumstances, to extend all procedural dates an additional thirty days in order to accommodate the filing of a motion to stay procedural dates, and to prepare and file a dispositive motion for summary decision.

April 4, 2005 - Admissions Session (9:30 a.m.).
